

Nr	Description	Priority	Notes
1	As a user I would like to create an account	A
2	As a user I would like to login to my account	A
3	As a user I would like the site to have a navigation bar and a footer	A	Navigation bar must include a profile image, average rating and a logout option. Footer will have some helpful links
4	As a user I would like to edit my account information	A	User must be able to edit their name, bio and profile picture
5	As a user I want a browsable catalog site	A	Catalog site must have a list of clickable items up for sale. User must also be able to search for an item and order items by name or price
6	As a seller I want to be able to put an item up for sale	A	Item must include a name, category, image, condition and description
7	As a buyer I want a dedicated site for each item	A	The landing site for an item must include name, category, image, condition and description. In addition to that information, the site will also display the current highest offer, a list of similar items and a button to bid on said item
8	As a buyer I want to bid on an item	A
9	As a buyer I want to be notified on the status of my bid	A	Notifications can be through email, push notifications and text messages. The user should be able to opt-in for these modes of communication
10	As a buyer I want to submit multiple offers for an item	A
11	As a buyer I want to insert contact and payment information when finalizing a purchase	A	The user would like to have these two submissions on the same page
12	As a buyer I want to be able to review that my information is correct before finalizing a purchase	A	The user would like this to be a seperate landing page
13	As a buyer I want to be able to jump between the three stages of checkout easily	A	The three stages are contact information, payment information and the review
14	As a buyer I would like to rate the seller	B	The buyer would like to rate the seller when the full transaction is complete. Full transaction being the item has been paid for and delivered